Requirements for Graduate Certificate in Gerontology

21 semester hours total - all courses are 3 semester hours

1. Core courses (9 semester hours)
   - Select three of the following courses:
     - GEOR 7110  Aging Policy and Services
     - GEOR 7200  Health and the Older Adult
     - GEOR 7260  Aging Practice, Policy, and Research
     - GEOR 8116  Sociology of Aging
     - GEOR 8320  Psychology of Aging

2. Elective courses (9 hours)
   - Select three of the following courses:
     - GEOR 6475  Communication and Aging
     - GEOR 7110  Aging Policy Services (if not taken in the core)
     - GEOR 7200  Health and the Older Adult (if not taken in the core)
     - GEOR 7260  Aging Practice, Policy, and Research (if not taken in the core)
     - GEOR 8200  Seminar in Gerontology
     - GEOR 8102  Life Course Sociology
     - GEOR 8115  Qualitative Gerontology
     - GEOR 8116  Sociology of Aging (if not taken in the core)
     - GEOR 8119  Global Aging and Social Policies
     - GEOR 8122  Death, Dying, and Loss
     - GEOR 8124  Diversity and Aging
     - GEOR 8130  Intimate Ties in Later Life
     - GEOR 8200  Aging Program Administration
     - GEOR 8320  Psychology of Aging (if not taken in the core)
     - GEOR 8330  Mental Health and Aging
     - GEOR 8340  Dementia
     - GEOR 8700  Special Topics in Gerontology
     - GEOR 8800  Directed Reading in Gerontology (requires special permission)

3. Internship (3 hours)
   - GEOR 8910  Gerontology Internship or an approved alternate internship course