

Requirements for Undergraduate Certificate in Gerontology

18 semester hours total - all courses are 3 semester hours

1. Core courses (12 semester hours)

- GERO 2000 Introduction to Gerontology
- Select two of the following courses:
 - GERO 4116 Aging and Society
 - GERO 4200 Health and the Older Adult
 - GERO 4610 Psychology of Aging (Prerequisite PSYC1101)
- Select one of the following courses:
 - GERO 4110 Aging Policy and Services
 - SW 4260 Aging Practice, Policy and Research

2. Elective courses (3 hours)

- Select one of the following courses:
 - GERO 3124 Diversity and Aging (formerly Ethnicity and Aging)
 - GERO 4110 Aging Policy and Services (if not taken in Section 1 above)
 - GERO 4116 Aging and Society (if not taken in Section 1 above)
 - GERO 4119 Global Aging and Families
 - GERO 4122 Death, Dying and Loss
 - GERO 4130 Family, Intimacy, and Aging
 - GERO 4200 Health and the Older Adult (if not taken in Section 1 above)
 - GERO 4475 Communication and Aging
 - GERO 4610 Psychology of Aging (Prerequisite PSYC 1101) (if not taken in Section 1 above)
 - GERO 4700 Special Topics in Gerontology
 - GERO 4910 Directed Study in Gerontology
 - SW 4260 Aging Practice, Policy and Research (if not taken in Section 1 above)

3. Internship (3 hours)

- GERO 4910 Gerontology Internship or an approved alternate internship course (please review internship application procedures and deadlines)