

Directed Readings 4800/8800 Application Gerontology Institute

Eligibility and Conditions: Must have Full Graduate Status, or the equivalent. Course 8800 is designed to assist the graduate student with a particular curriculum problem. Registration and approval for Course 8800 will be permitted only when an alternate course is not available.

Registration: This form does not constitute registration. You must register for the course in the usual manner at the time of regular registration for the semester for which the credit is to be earned after approval has been granted.

Application Information

To be completed by student and supervising faculty member

Student Name (please print): _____ ID#: _____

Student GSU Email Address: _____ Course #: _____

Directed Reading Area of Study: _____ Computer #: _____

Semester and Year: _____ Number of Credit Hours (1-4): _____

Program of Study

1. Directed Readings Topic _____

2. Course Objectives, including bibliography (attach syllabus or additional documents as appropriate)

3. Course Requirements (presentations, examinations, research projects, etc.)

4. Grading Policy (grading criteria, including the weight assigned to each requirement)

5. Frequency of meetings with supervising faculty member (at least once a week)

Approval Signatures

Student Signature Date

Director Date

Faculty Member Signature Date

Business Manager (Gosolar authorization) Date